STAT

6. [redacted] Advised by Mrs. Bobby Ruth Postlewaite, Personal Secretary to Senator Edwin L. Mechem (R., N. Mex.), that the Senator is back in town and from present considerations will be able to make the luncheon on Thursday, 20 February.

7. [redacted] Reviewed with Mr. David Newhall, Administrative Assistant to Representative Richard S. Schweiker (R., Pa.), correspondence received from [redacted]

[redacted] United States Navy, and a response to the Congressman from the Department of Navy concerning the issuance of the Department of Defense discharge from duty for use by [redacted] in applying for a Korean War bonus in the State of Pennsylvania. Department of Navy replied in effect that, although the two years' service with the Central Intelligence Agency served to fulfill the Lieutenant's obligated service requirement, under the provision of the [redacted] Draft Law [redacted] "that time, however, is not considered to be active duty for such matters as entitlement to Navy pay, credited towards retirement, or entitlement to a D. D. Form 214. /Certificate of Discharge/."
